

JMS 7th Grade Summer Reading 2020

This summer we are encouraging rising 7th graders to read one of four novels listed below. We realize these times are different and that accessing any of these books might be difficult. That is why we are suggesting students read but not requiring it. These are all books we have used for summer reading in years prior, and students tend to enjoy them. Of course, we are thrilled that students participate in any reading, so if there are other books students would like to read, that is wonderful.

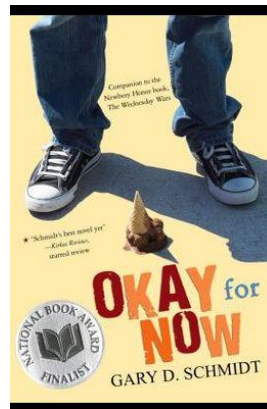

Island of the Blue Dolphins
by Scott O'Dell

The Lightning Thief
by Rick Riordan

Where the Red Fern Grows
by Wilson Rawls

Okay for Now
by Gary Schmidt

To encourage careful reading of any book a student might read, we will have a day of voluntary reporting on what students read over the summer. The student can bring in his/her book(s) and give a verbal synopsis of it. We hope this will give other students ideas on what they might like to read through the school year.
