Revised February, 2023

Students residing outside the boundaries of the school system may attend schools within The school system under the following conditions:

They must be approved by the superintendent of schools or designee.

They must pay a tuition fee established annually by the Board.
Tuition rate information is available in Pupil Services.

Requests from students from adjoining states to attend school shall be considered on a case-by-case basis.

If a tuition pupil withdraws from the Oak Ridge Schools during the school year or becomes a resident, a proportionate refund shall be made for the remaining period covered by tuition payment. The tuition for a nonresident pupil who moves into the school district during the first grading period of the school year will be refunded.

When payment is not made on all or any part of the required tuition for a previous year, the student(s) shall be excluded from future attendance until all prior and current tuition is paid.

If a parent of a student teaches outside the school system of the parent's residency, the student may be allowed to attend such school system if the appropriate tuition requirements are met, provided that there is available room and teaching capacity and other determinations made by the Board according to applicable law.

The school system shall have the right to reject the application of any pupil who fails to meet satisfactory scholastic standards, or maintain satisfactory daily attendance, or maintain satisfactory behavior.

Tuition shall be payable by contract, in advance, on an annual or semester basis. With approval of the superintendent, an alternate payment schedule may be utilized; however, any such schedule must provide for payment at least a month in advance.

There shall be no obligation for the Oak Ridge Schools to provide transportation for nonresident pupils.

Resident pupils whose parents move from the city during the school year but wish to remain enrolled during the remainder of the school year shall pay proportionate tuition charges for attendance and must meet the requirements of tuition students. Parents must submit in writing any residency changes to the Director of Pupil Services within five school days of the change.
